

Stonegate Global Nominated for Multiple International Hedge Fund Awards

November 20, 2014 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK: Stonegate Global has been nominated for multiple honors by International Hedge Fund Awards 2015, sponsored by BarclayHedge. Stonegate Global has been selected from among more than 66,000 financial industry professionals across the globe.

Stonegate Global provides domestic and offshore fund formation and fund administration services to investment management professionals, family offices, and other large institutional clients.

William Chong, Head of Alternative Fund Services for Stonegate Global stated, "To be short-listed as an award winning global fund administrator highlights Stonegate's mission to provide industry-leading services and innovative ideas to the alternative investments sector. These accomplishments recognize Stonegate as a significant player in the hedge fund, venture capital and private equity fund spaces."

The International Hedge Fund Awards are designed to highlight business excellence, integrity and leadership in today's market while celebrating key industry influencers. Winners are chosen based on a rigorous vetting process that involves months of voting, research and due diligence performed by Acquisition International's research team and judges.

"We are delighted that Stonegate Global has been nominated for these prestigious awards," said Jessica Keene, Director of Client Services at Stonegate Global. "These nominations are a reflection of our expertise and our commitment to client excellence."

ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL HEDGE FUND AWARDS
